

Member Bursary for ISANA National Conference Attendance

Introduction

ISANA International Education Association is the representative body for international education professionals in Australia and New Zealand, working in student services, advocacy, teaching, and policy development.

Mission Statement

ISANA: International Education Association is an association of Australian and New Zealand international education professionals whose members are dedicated to the advancement of international education through:

- leadership, promotion and advocacy of best practice standards in the service of international education;
- the facilitation of relevant forums, training and information exchange for its membership and the community; and
- working in partnership with stakeholder organisations including international students, educational, government, business and community groups

Objectives

ISANA aims to assist those directly and professionally engaged in the provision of international education services. It does this by:

- Providing a means for the exchange of information and networking
- Facilitating professional development of members
- Building links with associated organisations locally and overseas
- Recognising the interests and rights of international students in Australia and New Zealand.

Member Bursary

ISANA will offer $500 for a Member to attend the ISANA National Conference. The funds are to contribute towards expenses related to travel and accommodation. A conference fee waiver will also be offered to each successful member.

As the bursary is only a contribution towards travel and accommodation, applicants may wish to consider seeking additional support from their education institution.

Selection Criteria

1. You must be an ISANA Member.
2. You are currently unemployed or your employer/institution is unable to support your attendance at this year's conference.

3. You must provide a few paragraphs that responds to:

"How attending the 2016 National Conference will enhance your personal development and your role in supporting international students at your institution." (max 200 words)

4. The winning member will need to present to their ISANA branch at the following PD or meeting, on how the conference will make a difference to their role.

5. Entries need to be sent to isana@isana.org.au by Thursday 30th June 2016.

6. The winning entries for each state will be announced in the national ISANA newsletter in August and the winners will be notified.
